Volunteer. Connect. Learn.

Cargill Cares Alumni make a difference.

Who is Cargill Cares Alumni?

Cargill Cares Alumni (CCA) is an active group of former Cargill employees. This group has been in existence for over 35 years and currently has over 1,000 members. Formerly known as Cargill Cares Retirees, the group changed its name and opened its membership to include all former Cargill employees and their spouses/partners, rather than just retirees.

The CCA purpose is to promote volunteer efforts that align with and support the Cargill vision and mission, as well as to promote social and education activities that enhance alumni active lifestyles.

Why be a member of CCA?

As a CCA member you can:

- Stay in contact with other Cargill alumni
- Find volunteer activities that fit your schedule and interests
- Participate in education opportunities and social events
